Dear Mr. Breskin, Mr. Johnson, and Mr. Townsend,

Thank you for directing the recent settlement award contribution of $596,108.64 to the Legal Foundation of Washington. This generous distribution will go a long way in providing low-income and vulnerable people meaningful access to justice throughout our state. For our clients, these services can mean the difference between hunger and food on the table, bankruptcy and economic stability, unemployment and productive work.

We are most appreciative of you and your colleagues' leadership efforts to meet the legal needs of Washington's most vulnerable populations. You and your colleagues can be proud that by directing this additional funding to the Legal Foundation of Washington, you are enabling civil legal aid advocates in our state to serve thousands more people in need. Whether it is protecting elderly homeowners from fraudulent lending scams, diverting juveniles from delinquency and other trouble, protecting women and children from abuse, or helping a growing population of veterans receive their earned benefits, legal aid programs across Washington can address the wide range of urgent civil legal needs because of support like yours.

Thank you for helping fulfill the promise of justice for all.

Sincerely,

Caitlin Davis Carlson
Executive Director

Thank you!
